

Why Choose Tax Proz

My philosophy is that every American is overtaxed, and they should take every legal opportunity to pay the least tax possible. If you would like to read more of my ideology, you can go to my Editorial Page.

As previously noted, I am an Enrolled Agent with extensive training and knowledge of current tax law. To maintain EA certification, the IRS requires an average of 24 hours of Continuing Professional Education (CPE) credits each year to keep current with tax law changes. As a member of the National Association of Enrolled Agents (NAEA), the CPE requirements are higher and average 30 credits each year.

As a one man organization you can rest assured that you will receive the highest level of expertise and your returns will not be passed on to a junior or less seasoned employee.

In today's world of electronic communications, there is no need for a tax expert to be physically located in the same town or state as the client. I can provide all services regardless of your location, and my software will complete state tax returns for all states with an income tax.

Because the tax laws are extremely complicated and changing continuously, like most tax professionals I specialize in certain areas. The following are my areas of focus for preparation and consulting services.

- Individuals, particularly seniors
- Small and Home Based Businesses
- Self Employed and Independent Contractors
- International (Individuals)
  - Foreign Nationals
  - U.S. Expatriates

I also will represent taxpayers before all levels of the IRS with any problem they may have such as.

- Audits
- Back Taxes
- Liens
- Levy's
- Offers in Compromise

My prices are extremely competitive with the national tax firms, and should be considered a value service given the level of personal attention you will receive as well as my in depth tax knowledge.
